NOTE: This rule or regulation is for internal use only and does not enlarge an officer's civil or criminal liability in any way. It should not be construed as the creation of a higher standard of safety or care in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party claims. Violations of this directive, if proven, can only form the basis of a complaint by this agency, and then only in a non-judicial administrative setting.

I. PURPOSE

To establish processes and procedures for the department's Honor Guard and guidelines for its utilization in local and regional events including, but not limited to, funerals, parades, and other special events. Also establishes processes and procedures for police escorts.

II. POLICY

The Ogden Police Department will establish and maintain an Honor Guard. The Honor Guard will be comprised of sworn department members. Honor Guard members will conduct themselves in a manner that will promote a positive and professional image of the Ogden City Police Department.

III. DEFINITIONS

Ceremonial Rifle Services: A formal Honor Guard function involving the use of rifles to render honors, typically through the firing of blank cartridges in a synchronized manner.

Color Guard Services: Ceremonial duties performed involving the display, carriage, storage, protection, and presentation of the American flag and other official flags or standards.

Honor Guard Commander: The Ogden Police Department lieutenant responsible for direction and oversight of the Honor Guard.

Honor Guard Team Leader: A sworn Ogden Police Department officer responsible for supervising, managing, and facilitating the day-to-day operations of Honor Guard team members.

Honor Watch: A solemn duty performed by members of the Honor Guard, involving a continuous, ceremonial guard presence at the casket or cremated remains of a fallen officer, dignitary, or other designated individual.

Police Escort: A service provided by Ogden Police Department officers to accompany and protect individuals, vehicles, or property during transit for safety, security, or ceremonial purposes.

V. PROCEDURE, POLICE ESCORTS

The Ogden Police Department may provide police escorts upon request. All department members involved in police escorts must adhere to the guidelines in this policy.

A. Objectives

The primary objectives of police escorts are to:

1. Maintain public safety.
2. Facilitate the efficient movement of designated persons or objects.
3. Provide a visible security presence.
4. Uphold the department's commitment to community service.

B. Escort Details

The Ogden Police Department may provide police escorts for the following types of events or situations:

1. Funeral Processions: For fallen officers, public officials, or other law-enforcement related memorial events.
2. Public Events: Parades, marathons, or other sanctioned events requiring traffic management and public safety oversight.
3. Dignitary Protections: For visiting dignitaries, government officials, or other individuals requiring transportation security.
4. Oversized or Hazardous Loads: For the safe transportation of exceptionally large vehicles or hazardous materials through populated areas.
5. High-Value or Sensitive Cargo: For the secure transportation of valuable items, sensitive materials, or critical evidence.
6. Other: Other security or ceremonial events as authorized by the Chief of Police.

C. Legal Authority

All police escort operations shall strictly adhere to local, state, and federal laws, regulations, and guidelines pertaining to road use, traffic control, and public safety. This includes, but is not limited to:

1. Traffic Laws: Officers conducting escorts must comply with all applicable traffic laws, except where specific exemptions are granted for emergency vehicles under controlled conditions.
2. Road Closures: Any temporary road and intersection closures or traffic diversions must be conducted in accordance with local and state regulations. Permits must be obtained when required.

3. Use of Emergency Equipment: The use of emergency lights, sirens, and other special equipment must conform to departmental policies and state laws governing their use.
4. Speed Limits: Escort vehicles must adhere to posted speed limits unless specifically exempted for emergency situations, and then only with due regard for public safety.
5. Notification Requirements: Proper notification to relevant authorities (e.g., local traffic management centers, neighboring jurisdictions) must be made as required by law or inter-agency agreements.

D. Approval and Final Authority

The final authority for all police escort authorizations rests solely with the Chief of Police. While requests may be initiated through various channels within the department, ultimate approval or denial of any police escort service is at the discretion of the Chief. In accordance with this authority, the Chief may:

1. Approve or deny any escort request, regardless of its nature or origin.
2. Delegate authorization authority.
3. Establish additional criteria or guidelines for escort services.
4. Revoke previously granted authorizations if circumstances change, or new information becomes available.

In the Chief's absence, this authority may be temporarily delegated. However, the Chief shall be notified of all escort authorizations at the earliest possible opportunity.
