

Ogden City Council

Foundations for an Effective City Legislative Body

The Council exists to establish the laws of the City through plans and ordinances, to determine what services should be provided and at what level, to establish tax rates and fees, to investigate concerns regarding improprieties of the Administration, to conduct financial and management audits, and pass resolutions as deemed appropriate.

Council Staff exists to assist the Council in accomplishing the work of the Council through adherence to the Council's norms, rules of procedure, legislative intents, processes, schedules and work plan.

