32 performing groups

818 individual performers

HOLIDAY ELECTRIC LIGHT PARADE

Est. attendance 19,000 with 67 floats and 123 volunteers giving 492 volunteer hours

Volunteer reflections:

Volunteer Veronica "The staff were very organized, making it easy on a first-time volunteer. The other volunteers were great to chat and work with".

Volunteer Elizabeth "This was an amazing opportunity to see how much effort goes into a community event as big as this. I was able to interact with organizations from all over the area not just Ogden. I was able to help escort a float in the parade and truly see how many people were impacted by the event".

MAKE A WISH / PARADE GRAND MARSHAL

Ogden's Holiday Electric Light Parade and Gala will feature a special 3-year-old this year. This year's Grand Marshal, selected through the Make-A-Wish Foundation, is Adlee Frampton. She has experienced some unfortunate medical issues this year. Adlee and her family were extatatic to have her honored as this year's Grand Marshal. Each year, generous businesses offer their support to help make the event special for the child being honored.

FIRST FRIDAY ART STROLL

The art stroll is held the first Friday of each month and was attended by an estimated 8,000 to 10,000 people throughout the year. Currently 29 stand-alone locations as well as 40 more studios at the Monarch are participating in the stroll.

OGDEN'S POET LAUREATE

Angelika Brewer - Named a 2024 Poet Laureate Fellow by the Academy of American Poets

As the representative of Literary Arts for Ogden and the surrounding areas Brewer represented Ogden at over 22 engagements in 2024 such as, the Utah Conference for Teachers of English, Kiwanis Club, Ogden Pride Festival, PBS Utah, Standard-Examiner online, Utah Arts Festival, Ogden Arts Festival, Ogden City's annual Mayors Awards in the Arts events, Literary Deathmatch, Concrete Rose, Historic Union Station's Centennial celebrations, "Write About Now" cypher, and many other events.

DUMKE ARTS PLAZA INSTALLATIONS

Curated by Weber State University, the Dumke Arts Plaza featured two new sculptural exhibits in 2024.

Los Angeles based artist Megan Geckler debuted “A dream that comes in color”, a vibrant, kaleidoscopic large-scale, site-specific installation artwork that uses hyper-colorful, recyclable PVC film, integrated with the architecture of the Dumke Arts Plaza. Along with Megan’s installation the LED Screen was programmed 4380 Hours of video programming, with “it so happened” Guest curated by Kellie Bornhoft (@kelliebornhoft), the video is a colorful collection of moving image works that unveil their own making.

“Points of Transition”, an exhibition by artist Cordell Taylor, explores the interplay between nature and humanity, creating organic forms that intertwine and evolve, while analyzing shape, color and texture. The exhibit opened in November 2024 and will run through April 2025. Taylor’s exhibit was paired with Meditations, films by Jordan Belson, guest curated by Tyrone Davies. The abstract films are richly woven with cosmological imagery, exploring consciousness, transcendence and the nature of light itself. Films will run at the Dumke Arts Plaza from November 2024-April 2025.

DUMKE ARTS PLAZA LIVE PERFORMANCES

October 4th - Weber State University held a free 45-minute bilingual adaptation of Shakespeare’s “Winter’s Tale”.

August 8th - Onstage Ogden held a free Tunes-at-Noon concert featuring performances by Northern Utah students.
